SUNDAY SOHOOL CENSUS.

By arrangement of the superintendents of all the Protestant Sunday schools of the city, a census will be taken on Mon-day next of all the white people in Alexandria, The work of taking this ceasus has been apportioned among the Proy is of a class that is side splitting several Sunday schools and will be done while the whole programme is of the by the officers and teachers. A card like the following will be filled out for each family: Name, street, number, Sunday school, Sunday school prefer-ence, with additional lines for names of children in the family." Each worker will wear a small badge of red ribbon. The cards will be reported by the work-ers to their own superintendent, who will bring them to a meeting of all the superintendents that night. At this meeting the cards will be turned over to the Sanday school named thereos. By means of the information thus gathered on Monday it is expected that many scholars will be added to the various Sanday schools-

DAVIS IN COURT.

John C. Davie, the lawyer, charged in several indictments with forgery, embraziement and false pretenses in con nection with an alleged high-finance achieve by which, it is alleged, about $250,000 disappeared belonging to persons who had intrusted it to him for inindictments. Davis appeared oblivious of the proceedings, and only made answer to a request for his plea by repeating the promptings of his brother, Martin T. Davis, who sat at his side. The plea was not guilty. United S ales misunderstanding as to counsel has required speed, arisen the matter was left in abeyance for several days. A number of people in Alexandr's are sufferers from Davis's schemes.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mr. Frank Decton celebrated his twentieth birthday last night at the home of his pirents, Mr. Frank and Mrs. Mary Decton, No. 504 Queen street. Many friends and acquaintances of the family gathered and spent a delightful evening. Games were indulged in and stolen from the wagon, refreshments acrved. The guests departed for their homes at a late hour, wishing their host and bostess many more celebrations of the bappy anniver-

INTERESTING LECTURE. Rev. Edward G. Fi zjerald, O. P., of the Catholic University, last night delivered a lecture on "The Bible" at the Young Men's Sidelity Liceum Hall, noder the auspices of Fitzgerald Council, No. 459, Kuights of Columbus. The speaker was introduced by M. J. McFarland, grand knight of the order. The lectore gave an interesting history of the serip area and their intense value to the church, during which he alluded to certain passages over which there had for centuries been disputes.

ning at 8 o'clock and the accord at 9.

The Sutprise Theatre was the scene last night of an immense gathering as a result of a great show being put on the last three nights this week. The sanat-ble nonsense handed out by Harris and usual standard served the amusement lover at the Surprise Theatre. Come out tonight and see a good show.

ENTERPRISING FIRM. Business houses presper according to the gloger placed in the business by the proprietors. Starting from a business in which the boys only eked out a slight existence the trade of Hamilton & Co. has increased to the proportions whereby it requires the services of at least twenty skilled eigar makers to keep pace with their sales. With clever men ike Mesers. A. H. Oshlert, F. M. Ham-itton and J. P. Steiner in the forefront in the business world there is no such word as fail and Hamilton & Co. will always be recognized as a power in Alexandria's industries, as they use nothing but the best material and employ masters in the art of ergar making.

THE JAMESTOWN.

The steemer Jamestewn, in charge of Capt. Milburr, passed this city about 8:30 o'clock last night on her way to westmen', was arraigned in court in Newport News. She will be given a Washington vesterday on two additional trip Tuesday, and should the steamer make 17 miles an hour she will be taken to charge by the parties from Brazil who have agreed to purchase her if speed requirements are satisfactory The Jamestown will undergo some minor The plea was not guilty. HANDSOME ROASTER. Mr. J. Harry Rice has had construct. ed in the besement of his business house one of the finest oyeter roasters seen in Alexandria. It is about ten feet long by five feet wide and connects with a arge chimney in order to give it a fine draft. Last night to test its quality he invited a number of friends to a roast of oyeters. The oysters were fine and well roasted. Music was furnished by Prof. Riley, of Washington.

During the last few nights some one has placed signs on some of the lamps which help light the city on which was "Dutch Cleaner." It is not known whether this is an advertisement of the washing powder or a reminder that the lamps are filthy.

If one anticipates laying in a stock of wince and liquors for Thanksgiving Day it would be well to peruse the advertisements of Fairfax & Co., Lowenbach Bros, W. A. Johnson & Co., John Abern & Co., Edward Quinn & Sons, Frank C. Spinks, Remmel Bros., and John Riley, all reputable business houses which carry large and varied stocks.

There were more oysters at the wharf today than at any time this season, most of them of a good quality. Capt. John Johnson, of the bugsy as "Annie," arrived this morning with that celebrated hivalve from Jackson creek. He reported heavy weather and in consequence only brought a cargo of 100 bushels. His vessel is moored on the south side of King street wharl.
